

IN BRIEF

About $22,000 raised at charity's golf outing

About 150 people attended the 16th annual Realtor Foundation golf outing Thursday, raising about $22,000 in donations, the Metropolitan Indianapolis Board of Realtors reported.

Attendance and donations were down a bit from last year. However, total sponsorship participation was up in the event at Eagle Creek Golf Club, 8802 W. 56th St., MIBOR said.

The golf outing is one of several events sponsored by the Realtor Foundation, the charitable arm of MIBOR. It helped raise money to support the group's goal of alleviating homelessness.
